Host script

A welcoming team game built for conversation and shared discovery rather than humiliation or speed alone.

1. Welcome. I'm [NAME], tonight's host and final human decision-maker for wording and scoring.
2. If you arrived alone, we will help you join a team that has agreed to welcome another person.
3. Questions will be read aloud and displayed when possible. Ask for a repeat at any time.
4. We fact-checked every answer, but ambiguity happens. Raise a challenge respectfully; I'll review it openly.
5. The goal is a good room, not a perfect scoreboard.

3. 00:25–01:05 — Four short rounds with answer review and one pause.
4. 01:05–01:15 — Human round: teams contribute a conversation question, not a scored fact.
5. 01:15–01:30 — Resolve challenges, announce results, thank fact-checkers, set next date.
